

Municipal Bond Election Campaigns

Your Pathway to Success

Package Description

Cooksey has a wealth of experience advising and assisting cities, other public entities and community-based political action committees with winning communications strategies – including persuasive campaigns and informational campaigns – for bond elections, tax reallocation proposals and other measures requiring voter support. The best campaigns start with a strong understanding of likely voters’ perceptions, preferences and concerns, so data-driven strategies can be deployed at the right place and time, with the right message, to convert potential supporters into solid supporters.
